Dear Parents,

We have been thinking of a way we at St. Benedict Catholic School can help those who have been impacted by Hurricane Harvey. There are many organizations collecting funds to help those in need, and we encourage our families to support those efforts in any way you deem appropriate.

St. Benedict Catholic School would like to help schools directly. We would like to “adopt” St. Christopher School and help those families in need because of the devastating effects of Harvey. I have been in contact with Claudia Cavazos, principal of St. Christopher in Houston. Ms. Cavazos has set up a Go Fund Me account for St. Christopher’s. The monies raised will be directly used to help the faculty staff and students. To access the Go Fund Me site go to: gf.me/u/cj8mt6
This link will also provide you with a summary of the damage that was incurred as a result of Hurricane Harvey.

On Thursday, September 21, we will also have a $1.00 dress down day. The proceeds from that dress down will be donated to St. Christopher School.

In the hopes to help all the area Catholic schools and parishes in Texas I have found a link which will directly support the parishes and school in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. If you would like to help the victims of Hurricane Harvey in addition to what we are donating to St. Christopher this link below will connect you to other parishes and schools in need of our help.

The Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston posted this message

This will link you to a page where you can support the diocese schools and parishes in general.

As we pray for those in the path of Hurricane Irma, we will extend our donations efforts next week.

God bless,

Mrs. Oriti
