

May Thoreau Bicentennial News

Our culminating Thoreau Bicentennial event, “Sauntering Year Two with Henry David Thoreau”, took [place on May 11. It was a great evening filled with music, original student poetry, song, and period dress of the 19th century. Displays of student’s work on Thoreau throughout the year was also exhibited. Students also presented a reading of “One World at a Time”, which retold the last days of Henry David Thoreau. Everyone enjoyed Henry’s birthday cake as he will end his birthday year on July 12.

All are invited to the opening of junior high teacher Mrs. Donna Przybojewski at Cleveland Heights Library Art Gallery on June 1 from 5:00-9:00 for the opening reception of her display of illustrations from her children’s books on Thoreau. Included in the exhibit will be illustrations from her newest book on Thoreau If Henry David Thoreau Traveled the Southwest. The display will be up until June 29.

Also, join Mrs. Przybojewski on June 18 from 7:00-8:00 at Cleveland Heights Library for her talk on Henry David Thoreau and the reading of one of her books.
